Executive Proclamation

Office of the Governor

Whereas, South Dakota was founded with hard work, perseverance, dedication to duty, and concern for others, and each of these attributes can be ascribed to Barb Kadinger, who is retiring after serving the health and needs of families in South Dakota for the past 35 years; and,

Whereas, In 1973, Barb graduated from Mount Marty College earning a Bachelor of Science in nursing; and,

Whereas, Barb served as a Captain in the United States Army Nurse Corps in Fort Campbell, Kentucky, from 1973 to 1976. Following Barb's discharge, she worked for 2 years on the pediatrics floor at St. Mary's Hospital in Rochester, Minnesota, and 22 years at Sioux Valley Hospital in Sioux Falls, South Dakota, in pediatrics and the pediatric intensive care unit; and,

Whereas, Barb joined the Department of Health as a Community Health Nurse in the Minnehaha County WIC office in May 2000. She has made a significant contribution to public health in South Dakota and is a valued and respected member of the Department; and,

Whereas, It is fitting and proper as Governor to make special note of this outstanding South Dakotan on this momentous occasion:

Now, Therefore, I, Dennis Daugaard, Governor of the state of South Dakota, do hereby designate October 8, 2013, as in South Dakota, and I join with her family, friends, and colleagues in wishing her a fulfilling and happy retirement.

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the state of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Nineteenth Day of September in the Year of Our Lord, Two Thousand and Thirteen.

Dennis Daugaard
